Numb. 8278.

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday November 22. to Saturday November 26. 1743.

St. James's, November 26.

THE following Addreſs of the Mayor, Burgeſſes and Commonalty of the City of Briſtol, in Common Council aſſembled, was this Day preſented to the King by Edward Southwell and Robert Hoblyn, Eſqrs. their Repreſentatives in Parliament, who were introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Lincoln, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed Chamber in Waiting; which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Burgeſſes and Commonalty of the City of Briſtol, in Common Council aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Burgeſſes and Commonalty of the City of Briſtol, in Common Council aſſembled, beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty's Return to your Britiſh Dominions, after the Dangers and Fatigues of a glorious Campaign.

Your Majeſty's Zeal for the Liberties of Europe, demands the utmoſt Returns of Duty from every Subject of Great Britain, who feels in himſelf a juſt Concern for the Rights of his Native Country. We cannot therefore conceal, though we want Words fully to expreſs, the Satisfaction which warms our Hearts, when we reflect on the Succeſs which has attended the Arms of your Majeſty and your Allies, in Support of a juſt and equitable Balance of Power.

But permit us, Sir, in a more particular Manner, and with all the Sentiments of Duty, Gratitude, and Veneration, to congratulate your Majeſty on your ever memorable Victory at Dettingen; where your Majeſty, with conſummate Wiſdom, commanded, and, by your great Example, animated the Forces of Confederate Nations in the Cauſe of Europe.

We beſeech your Majeſty to accept, with theſe Expreſſions of our Duty, our ſincere Congratulation on the Birth of another Son to his Royal Highneſs the Prince of Wales; and on the Marriage of her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs Louiſa to the Prince Royal of Denmark.

We beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that as we eſteem the Stability of your Majeſty's Throne the only Foundation of our Security: So we ſhall make it the Ambition of our Lives to conduct ourſelves in our ſeveral Stations, as becomes Subjects deeply ſenſible of the Wiſdom and Equity of your Majeſty's Government.

St. James's, November 24.

This Day the following Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgeſſes of the Town of Shrewſbury, was preſented to his Majeſty by William Kynaſton, Eſq; Member for Shrewsbury; who was introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Lincoln, Lord of the Bed Chamber in Waiting; which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgeſſes of the Town of Shrewsbury.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgeſſes of this ancient Corporation, humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty on your ſafe Arrival in theſe your Britiſh Dominions. We take this Opportunity of expreſſing our Joy on the glorious Succeſs of your Majeſty's Arms at Dettingen; a Victory, next under God, owing to your Majeſty's Conduct and perſonal Valour; by which not only the Rights of the Houſe of Auſtria, but the Liberties of a all Europe were ſecured from falling a Prey to the common Enemy of both.

We cannot ſufficiently acknowledge your Majeſty's conſtant Regard for the Furtherance of the Proteſtant Intereſt, particularly in the late Inſtance ſhewn by the Marriage of her Highneſs the Princeſs Louiſa with the Prince Royal of Denmark; and it is with great Satisfaction that we hear of the Increaſe of your Royal Line, by the Birth of another Prince.

We moſt heartily implore the Divine Providence to grant your Majeſty a long and auſpicious Reign, as well for the Proſperity of theſe your Kingdoms, as the Good of all Europe in general: And with Hearts full of Gratitude aſſure your Majeſty, that we will, to the utmoſt of our Power, contribute to the Eaſe and Support of your Majeſty's Government.

Given under our common Seal at Shrewsbury, the 21ſt Day of November, in the Seventeenth Year of your Majeſty's Reign.

Naples, Nov. 5, N. S. Several Warrants from the War and Secretary of State's Office have of late been directed to the Officers of the King's Troops in this City, to repair immediately to their reſpective Poſts, and other Detachments of Foot from Capua, &c. have been ordered to march towards Aquila, whither Proviſions of all Sorts are conſtantly ſent. On the 25th paſt the Queen of Spain's Birth-day was celebrated at Court with great Solemnity, the Foreign Miniſters, Nobility, &c. in their rich Habits, appeared at Court, to compliment their Majeſties on that Occaſion; and in the Evening there was a Diſcharge of the Artillery of the Caſtles, Gallies, &c. The Accounts brought this Week of the Sickneſs, are leſs favourable than the laſt; it continues at Reggio and in that Neighbourhood; and though great Care is taken to keep the Malady within the Lines, yet this Government is under great Alarm.

Rome, Nov. 9. Cardinal Pozzo Bonelli, the Archbiſhop of Milan, who was on Departure for that City, has been obliged to ſuſpend his Journey thither, until the Difficulty, which his Promotion to that Cathedral meets with at the Court of Vienna, is removed. The Pope has appointed M. Ferretti Governor of the Arms at Ferrara, and M. Origo Governor of the Fortreſs of Civita Vecchia, in lieu of the latter. On the 29th paſt an Edict was publiſhed about this City, notifying the Re-eſtabliſhment of Commerce with Tuſcany by Land. The Pope continues to take the Air about the Gardens in this City, and many of the Cardinals are returned from their Country Seats. Frequent Conſultations are held before the Pope, upon the Diſpatches from the Legations of Bologna, Ferrara, and Ravenna, on the Difficulties they find themſelves under, as to ſupplying the Armies in the Romagna not only with Forrages, but likewiſe the Contributions they require in Money, which put this Government into the utmoſt Agitation.

Florence, Nov. 12. By the lateſt Accounts from the Romagna, the Spaniſh Army continues at Fano and Peſaro, where the Artillery and Ammunition were arrived from Civita Caſtellana. Prince Lobkowitz remains at his Head Quarters at Rimini, at which Place and at the Cattolica his Artillery is arrived. On the 3d Inſtant M. de Kaunitz, the Queen of Hungary's Miniſter to the King of Sardinia, ſet out from the Army on his Return to Turin. Many Sardinian Officers arrive daily at the Auſtrian Army to ſerve as Voluntiers, and a Battalion of Vaſquez is to join the ſaid Army from Lombardy. On the 6th Inſtant expreſs Orders from the Regency were ſent to Piſtoia, Siena, and Leghorn, to examine the Weight of Zecchins there, that Coin having of late been found leſs than its uſual Weight, ſo that the Merchants refuſe to receive Payments in it. An Edict has been ſince publiſhed, whereby the Great Duke, for the Credit of his Coin, offers to make good the Deficiency. On the 9th returned hither from Vienna, the Cabinet Courier diſpatched thither ſome few ago by M. de Richecourt, with the Pope's Diſpenſation for the Marriage of Prince Charles of Lorrain and the Archdutcheſs Mary-Anne.

Vienna, Nov. 20. The Duke of Aremberg arrived here on Sunday laſt in perfect Health, and Marſhal Khevenhuller is expected the next Week. Prince Charles's Marriage with the Archdutcheſs was declared Yeſterday the Name Day of the Empreſs; and Count Kaunitz is appointed Grand Maitre of the new Court at Bruſſels.

Hambourg, Nov. 26. Their Royal Highneſſes the Prince and Princeſs of Denmark ſet out from Altena in the ſame Chariot the 23d Inſtant, about Eight in the Morning, in order to proceed by eaſy Stages to Copenhagen. From Sleſwick, where her Royal Highneſs is to repoſe two or three Days, the Prince will go on, in order to be in Readineſs to receive the Princeſs at the Palace of Fridericksberg; and from thence their Royal Highneſſes are to make their publick Entry into the City of Copenhagen. The Prince has given the ſeveral Engliſh who had the Honour to accompany her Royal Highneſs to Altena, very generous Marks of his Liberality.

Bruſſels, Nov. 25. Major General Ponſonby, Colonel la Deviſe, and Colonel Robinſon, Deputy Quarter Maſter General, &c. with the Eighth and laſt Diviſion of his Britannick Majeſty's Troops, arrived here in very good Order this Day, according to the Route prefixed, notwithſtanding the River Roar near Duren had ſo overflowed its Banks that there was no paſſing it without a Bridge of Pontons, in making of which the General himſelf aſſiſted in Perſon: The Roads too were almoſt made impaſſable by the Wheel Carriages of the preceding Diviſions.

Hague, Nov. 29, N. S. The News, that was publiſhed here the Beginning of this Week, of the French having paſs'd the Rhine at Hunnihgen, ningen, proves to be premature; they having only lodged themſelves in an Iſland in that River belonging to the Marquiſate of Baden; where they are ſaid to be fortifying themſelves; but hitherto not a Man of them, as far as we hear, has ſet his Foot upon the Continent of Swabia; though indeed the Branch of the Rhine, which ſeparates this Iſland from Germany, is ſaid to be far leſs conſiderable than that which ſeparates it from Alſace; and over which the French have now thrown their Bridge. The ſaid Iſland is German Territory; and the Fortifications that were formerly on it, and which the French are raiſing again, were razed by the Peace of Baden.

Whitehall, November 26.

The King has been pleaſed to order a Congé d'Elire to paſs the Great Seal, empowering the Dean and Chapter of the Collegiate Church of St. Aſaph, to elect a Biſhop of that See, void by the Tranſlation of the Right Reverend Father in God, Doctor Iſaac Maddox, late Biſhop thereof, to the See of Worceſter; and alſo to name and recommend to the ſaid Dean and Chapter, the Reverend John Thomas, Doctor in Divinity, one of his Majeſty's Chaplains in Ordinary, and Dean of the Cathedral Church of Peterborough, to be by them elected Biſhop thereof.

The King has been pleaſed to conſtitute and appoint Henry Pulteney, Eſq; to be Governor and Captain of the Town of Kingſton upon Hull, and of all the Forts, Block-Houſes, and Fortifications belonging to the ſame.

Leiceſter-Houſe, Nov. 23.

This Day the Baron d'Ehrthall, Envoy Extraordinary from the Elector of Mentz, had his firſt private Audience of his Royal Highneſs the Prince of Wales; to which he was introduced by Sir Clement Cottrel Dormer, Knight, Maſter of the Ceremonies.

St. James's, Nov. 25.

This Day the Baron d'Ehrthall had his firſt private Audience of his Royal Highneſs the Duke.

He had afterwards a private Audience of their Royal Highneſſes the Princeſſes Amelia, and Caroline; to both which he was introduced by Sir Clement Cottrell Dormer, Knight, Maſter of the Ceremonies.

Whitehall, November 26, 1743.

Whereas it has been repreſented to his Majeſty, that John Stewart, of Caſtle Stewart in the County of Galloway in North Britain, Eſq; was, in the Night, between the 18th and 19th Inſtant, robbed, in his Bed-Chamber, of his Portmanteau, in which was contain'd the Sum of Two hundred eighty five Pounds and nine Shillings, ſealed up in a yellow Canvas Bag, as alſo other Goods, by a Perſon or Perſons unknown, at the Houſe of Solomon Harris, being the Crown Inn, at Fakenham, in the County of Norfolk; which ſaid Portmanteau, and all the Goods therein contained, except the ſaid Sum of Money, have been ſince found. His Majeſty, for the better diſcovering and bringing to Juſtice, the Perſon or Perſons who committed the ſaid Robbery, is pleaſed to promiſe His moſt gracious Pardon to any one of the Perſons concerned therein, who ſhall diſcover his Accomplice or Accomplices, ſo as he, ſhe, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

CARTERET.

And the ſaid John Stewart does promiſe a Reward of Thirty Pounds, to be paid by Col. James Stuart, of his Majeſty's Third Regiment of Foot Guards, to any Perſon who ſhall make a Diſcovery of the ſaid Robbery, ſo as one or more of the Perſons who committed the ſame ſhall be lawfully convicted thereof.

James Stuart.

And as a further Encouragement, the ſaid Solomon Harris does likewiſe promiſe a Reward of Twenty Pounds to any Perſon or Perſons who ſhall make ſuch Diſcovery in Manner aforeſaid, upon ſuch Conviction.

Solomon Harris.

And as a ſtill further Encouragement, the Inhabitants of the ſaid Town of Fakenham do promiſe a Reward of Thirty Guineas, to be paid by either Mr. David and John Jones, Joſeph Harriſon, Joſeph Peckover, or James Jones, all Inhabitants of the ſaid Town, to the Perſon who ſhall diſcover any Perſon or Perſons, his Accomplice, or their Accomplices, in the Robbery of the ſaid John Stewart, upon ſuch Conviction as aforeſaid.

James Jones.

Admiralty-Office, Nov. 19, 1743.
